MICHELIN GUIDE CEREMONY 2026

- One night
- One ceremony
- One standout afterparty
- One venue

In February of this year, The MICHELIN Guide Ceremony 2026 GB&I was held outside of Great Britain for the first time ever. The venue chosen to host this prestigious event was The Convention Centre Dublin (The CCD).

MICHELIN needed a venue that could deliver both an awards ceremony and a standout afterparty. As the organisation that sets the global benchmark for quality and excellence in hospitality, expectations were high. The space had to be capable of hosting hundreds of MICHELIN-starred chefs and Bib Gourmand recipients, which was no mean task. This was a one-night only event, with significant media and industry attention. The expectation was not just to deliver, but to exceed the expectations of both MICHELIN and the world-class audience in the room.

ESGE event manager:

"Phil's virtual venue tool is unique and fantastic and allowed us to host a very successful virtual industry site visit. Michael from Catering assisted greatly in providing good ideas as to how to cater for the various aspects of our event, such as organising the flow of delegates into the exhibition hall by using the kitchens at the back. Our sustainability plan "Green Days" is very important to us. Declan helped us realise our goal of offsetting our carbon footprint at the CCD and showcasing the GrownForest project with whom we collaborated, resulting in us planting almost 600 indigenous trees on protected land. We were also able to work closely with the digital signage department to create a bespoke solution, reducing the amount of printed signage we needed."

ASSOCIATION CLIENTS

VELO-CITY JUNE 2019

- World's largest cycling summit in the heart of Dublin City, attracting almost 1,400 delegates
- 300 speakers and 80 key sessions providing education on and promoting sustainable transport
- Collaboration and support between venue and local authority
- Additional on-road cycle routes surrounding The CCD were implemented by Dublin City Council, not only benefiting a large-scale bike parade, but the community local to the venue

Brendan O'Brien, Head of Transportation, Dublin City Council:

"The CCD was the perfect setting for us in terms of its state of the art facilities, which we knew would attract delegates and also ensure the smooth running of the event, but also due to its ideal location in terms of showcasing the cycling infrastructure the council has already implemented and its proximity to new cycle greenways in development."
